<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course Code</th>
<th>Course Title</th>
<th>Credits</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>LA 100</td>
<td>Civil Law : General Principles</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 101</td>
<td>Juristic Acts and Contracts</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 150</td>
<td>Fundamental Rights</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 200</td>
<td>Law of Obligations : General Principles</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 201</td>
<td>Wrongful Acts, Management of Affairs without Mandate and Undue Enrichment</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 202</td>
<td>Law of Property</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 203</td>
<td>Law of Real Property</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 204</td>
<td>Seminar in Civil Law I</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 205</td>
<td>Seminar in Civil Law II</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 210</td>
<td>Criminal Law : General Principles</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 211</td>
<td>Criminal Law : Offences</td>
<td>4</td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>

Course Description (LL.B.)

LA 100  Civil Law : General Principles 3 Credits
This course is intended to explore the development and sources of law, types and classification of law, the enactment, amendment and repellation of law, the relationship between law and other social phenomena, legal systems, rights duties, general principles of civil law as provided in the Civil and Commercial Code, Book I, to the extent not covered by LA 101.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 101  Juristic Acts and Contracts 3 Credits
This course seeks to study principles governing juristic acts as embodied in the Civil and Commercial Code Book I, including those relating to periods of time and periods of prescription and principles of contract law under the Civil and Commercial Code, Book II.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 150  Fundamental Rights 3 Credits
This course is a forum for a study of the meaning and significance of human rights and fundamental rights as recognised in the constitutional law of Thailand as well as historical backgrounds, development, evolution, types and protection of fundamental rights in varying legal systems.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 200  Law of Obligations : General Principles 3 Credits
This course examines general principles of the law of obligations under the Civil and Commercial Code, Book II as not embraced by LA 101 and LA 201.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 201  Wrongful Acts, Management of Affairs without Mandate and Undue Enrichment 3 Credits
This course provides a study of principles of civil and commercial law relating to wrongful acts, management of affairs without mandate and undue enrichment under the Civil and Commercial Code, Book II.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 202  Law of Property 3 Credits
This course aims to explore principles of law relating to property under the Civil and Commercial Code, Book IV.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 203  Law of Real Property 3 Credits
This course seeks to examine principles of law under the Land Code, laws related to land use, for example, the law on land development, the law on land reform for agricultural purposes, the law on national reserved forests, the law on Ratpassadu land, the law on strata titles, the law related to building control and construction, the law on land taxes and related laws.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 204  Seminar in Civil Law I 3 Credits
This course is intended to explore fundamental issues and current issues underlying general principles of civil law. It also provides a forum for practicing the giving of legal opinions.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 205  Seminar in Civil Law II 3 Credits
This course is intended to explore fundamental issues and current issues underlying principles of law related to personality, juristic acts and contracts, obligations, specific contracts, including problematic issues surrounding the law of wrongful acts, management of affairs without mandate and undue enrichment.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 210  Criminal Law : General Principles 4 Credits
Part I.
This course is dedicated to grasping general principles of criminal law under the Penal Code, Part I.
(Lecture Time: 4 hours a week)

LA 211  Criminal Law : Offences 4 Credits
Prerequisite: LA 210 (Criminal Law : General Principles)
This course provides a study of offences under the Penal Code, Part II and Part III.
(Lecture Time: 4 hours a week)
LA 230 Specific Contracts I
This course examines principles of law related to contracts of sale, exchange, gift, hire of property and hire-purchase under the Civil and Commercial Code, Book III.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 231 Specific Contracts II
This course is devoted to a study of principles of law related to contracts of agency, brokerage, loan, deposit, hire of service, hire of work and carriage under the Civil and Commercial Code, Book III.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 232 Security Transactions: Real and Personal Security
This course provides a study of principles of law related to suretyship, mortgage and pledge under the Civil and Commercial Code, Book III.
(Lecture Time: 2 hours a week)

LA 236 Specific Contracts III
Prerequisites: LA 100 (Civil Law: General Principles) and LA 101 (Juristic Acts and Contracts)
This course accommodates a study of principles of law related to warehousing, compromise, gambling and current accounts.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 238 Law of Economic Activities
Prerequisite: Being at least a third-year student
This course is dedicated to exploring theories, justifications and concepts surrounding the need for sui generis legislation on controls over economic activities, namely, the law on anti-trust, the law on unfair trade practices, the law on consumer protection and other relevant legislation. Subjects of investigation are principles of law, enforcement of law, remedies and measures for the protection of the public and injured persons. Problems emerging from the enforcement of laws regulating economic activities are also discussed.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 250 Introduction of Public Law
This course is intended to explore institutions of public law, the meaning, elements and forms of the state as well as legal personality and institutions of the State. The compass of the study is also extended to the meaning and need of the Rule of Law, the development and evolution of public law, the scope and peculiar nature of public law. Also embraced by this course are sources of public law and juristic methods in public law.
(Lecture Time: 2 hours a week)

LA 251 Constitutional Law
This course provides room for studying the history and evolution of the constitution, organs of the State, rights and liberties of persons, theories of particular importance known in constitutionalism such as the separation of powers, judicial review and philosophical foundations of concepts in constitutional systems.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 253 Constitutional Court and Procedure
Prerequisite: Having taken or taking LA 250 (Introduction to Public Law) and LA 251 Constitutional Law
This course provides a study of the history of concepts related to the Constitutional Court. Particular emphasis is placed on constitutionality, the missions, structure and functions of the Constitutional Court, the acquisition of judges of the Constitutional Court, general principles surrounding constitutional procedure and specific principles surrounding constitutional procedure for certain cases. The study also embraces decisions, effects and execution of decisions of the Constitutional Court.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 254 Law Relating to the Control of the Exercise of State Powers
Prerequisite: Having taken or taking LA 250 (Introduction to Public Law)
This course is aimed at a study of such constitutional mechanisms for controlling the exercise of the State powers as used by non-judicial organisations under the Constitution and by citizens. For this purpose, the investigation includes, for example, the structure, missions and functions of such constitutional organisations as the National Counter Corruption Commission, the National Human Rights Commission, the Parliamentary Ombudmen, the National Economic and Social Advisory Council. The study also covers referendum under section 214, the proposing of law bills by citizens entitled to vote under section 170 of the Constitution of the Kingdom of Thailand, B.E. 2540 (1997).
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)
LA 255  Law Relating to Public Agents 3 Credits
Prerequisite: Having taken or taking LA 250 (Introduction to Public Law)
This course explores the relationship between the State and public authorities of varying categories such as civil servants, officials of State Enterprises and officials of public organisations, with regard to the formation, modification and annulment of legal relations, rights and duties of State officials as well as disciplinary action and the initiation of legal proceedings for compensation.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 256  Introduction to Public Economic Law 3 Credits
Prerequisite: Having taken or taking LA 250 (Introduction to Public Law)
This course is dedicated to investigating the history, backgrounds and regulations relevant to the State's control and undertaking of economic activities. The study embraces how the State exercises control over economic activities undertaken by individuals and how the State engages in economic activities. Also covered by the exploration are measures exercisable by the State as reflected in relevant legislation. Shortcomings in the law and possible solutions will be canvassed as well.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 257  Law on Social Welfare 3 Credits
Prerequisite: Being at least a second-year student
This course seeks to examine concepts and principles underlying the State policies and legislation related to social welfare such as social welfare systems, the provision of social welfare to varying members of society e.g. social welfare for employees, family social welfare, social welfare for women, children and juveniles in situations of distress, welfare for the elderly, welfare for the disable and the people in need. The study also embraces related problems and approaches to prevention and resolution of such problems.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 258  Comparative Constitutional Law 3 Credits
Prerequisite: Having taken or taking LA 250 (Introduction to Public Law) and LA 251 (Constitutional Law)
This course is aimed at examining the Constitution of Thailand in comparison with constitutions of other jurisdictions in issues of particular importance.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 259  Law Relating to Town and Country Planning and Construction 3 Credits
Prerequisite: Being at least a second-year student
This course explores general problems in connection with town development leading to land use and necessitating enactment of legislation on town and country planning and legislation on construction control with a view to exercising control over land use and construction. Given that this is an administrative measure having significant effects on rights and liberties of general members of the public, it deserves a particular study in separation from the general course on administrative law. In this connection, the study is centred on the historical backgrounds and important features of legislation on town and country planning and legislation on building control, related bodies, means and measures for enforcement of town and country planning and building control as well as the relationship with other relevant laws.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 263  Introduction to the French Legal System 3 Credits
Prerequisite: Being at least a second-year student
This course provides an account of the history backgrounds of the French legal system, the emergence of the French Civil Code, important legal institutions, juristic methods, principles of law in, for example, contract, torts and property and also recent development in the French legal system.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 264  Practice in French Legal Terminology 3 Credits
Prerequisite: Being at least a second-year student
This course provides a study, in a comparative dimension, of concepts and principles of particular importance in the French and Thai legal systems. In this connection, emphasis is placed on practice in reading, translation and drafting contracts in French.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 265  English Legal Terminology and Expressions 3 Credits
Prerequisite: This course is not available for students outside the Faculty of Law
This course is dedicated to introducing meaning and the use of English legal terminology and expressions of particular importance as well as concepts underlying terms and expressions in varying legal systems as a necessary background for reading and surveying English documents in the legal profession.

(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 266 Introduction to Anglo-American Law
Prerequisite: Being at least a second-year student
This course seeks to study the history of the Anglo-American legal system and explores its legal doctrines embodied in common law, equity, statutes and local customs. Emphasis is on a detailed survey of juristic methods used in different types of law. In this connection, relevant theories are to be canvassed at a philosophical level. The scope of the study is also extended to the exploration of the judicial practice in juristic methods, with a view to giving a proper insight into the Anglo-American legal system.

(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 267 Introduction to Roman Law
This course gives an account of the history and substance of the Roman legal system which provides a foundation of legal systems of civil law jurisdictions at present.

(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 268 Islamic Law
This course provides a study of the history and substance of the Islamic legal system, sources of Islamic law and principles enshrined in the Islamic law.

(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 273 Introduction to the German Legal System
Prerequisite: Being at least a second-year student
This course explores the history of the German legal system, in particular, the emergence of the German Civil Code. Emphasis is placed on juristic methods and important institutions in the German legal system. The study embraces important legal principles in, for example, juristic acts, obligations, torts and property and also recent development subsequent to the preparation of the German Civil Code.

(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 274 Practice in German Legal Terminology
Prerequisite: Being at least a second-year student
This course provides a study, in a comparative dimension, of concepts and principles of particular importance in the German and Thai legal systems. In this connection, emphasis is placed on practice in reading, translation and drafting contracts in German.

(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 275 Introduction to Japanese Law
Prerequisite: Being at least a second-year student
This course attempts to explore the history of the Japanese codes of law, in particular, the preparation of the codes, influences of the Western legal systems on the Japanese law. Emphasis is placed on juristic methods and important institutions in the Japanese legal system. In this connection, the study embraces important legal principles in, for example, juristic acts, obligations, torts and property and also recent development subsequent to the preparation of the Japanese Civil Code.

(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 276 Practice in Japanese Legal Terminology
Prerequisite: Being at least a second-year student
This course provides a study, in a comparative dimension, of concepts and principles of particular importance in the Japanese and Thai legal systems. In this connection, emphasis is placed on practice in reading, translation and drafting contracts in Japanese.

(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 277 Seminar on Law and State Policies on Women
This course explores the evolution of the change of women’s legal status as well as changes in State’s policies and mechanisms vis-à-vis women. The study is centred on the development of modern society as from the major change of the government regime in 1932 up to present, with analysis of economic, social, political and cultural factors in each epoch leading to revision and adaptation of State’s policies, legal reform and the organisation of the State organs with a view to greater equality for women. Developments in other jurisdictions will be compared and contrasted with international standards established in international instruments of the United Nations e.g. the United Nations Convention on the Elimination of All Forms of Discrimination Against Women.

(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)
LA 278 Seminar on Law and State Policies on Children and the Youth 3 Credits
This course provides an analytical study of the legal evolution, State’s policies and measures in connection with the protection, support and development of children and the youth, powers and duties of the National Commission on the Promotion and Co-ordination of the Youth Affairs as well as other State agencies concerned, legal problems and obstacles encountered in the administration of State affairs, functions and roles of families towards physical, mental, emotional and social development of children and the youth. Attempts will be made for comparing legal development in other jurisdictions as guidance for revision of law, with a view to achieving the protection of children and the youth along the lines of such principles internationally recognised as, in particular, established in the United Nations Convention on the Rights of the Children.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 279 Seminar on Law and State Policies on the Disable 3 Credits
This course seeks to provide an account of the legal evolution and State’s policies in regard to the provision of aids and the improvement the quality of life in the interest of the disable in comparison with positions in other jurisdictions, with particular emphasis on the United Nations’ Charter in respect of the disable, legislation and directive principles of fundamental State policies as regards social welfare, rehabilitation of the capacity of the disable and the elevation of the quality of life of the disable.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 280 Judicial System and General Principles of Procedural Law 2 Credits
This course is intended to explore the forms of organisation of courts and general principles of procedure applicable to courts.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 300 Family Law 3 Credits
This course provides a study of principles of family law under the Civil and Commercial Code, Book V.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 301 Law of Succession 2 Credits
This course provides an account of principles of law concerning succession under the Civil and Commercial Code, Book VI.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 302 Consumer Protection Law 3 Credits
This course explores principles, rationales and concepts providing room for enactment of legislation for the protection of consumers. The study embraces legal measures for consumer protection, enforcement of law and measures for redressing injury suffered by consumers as embodied in the Consumer Protection Act, B.E. 2522 (1979) and other relevant legislation.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 303 Civil Law System 3 Credits
This course examines the emergence and evolution of the civil law system from the Roman period, the Medieval Period through the emergence of the French Civil Code and of the German Civil Code as well as the development of the codification in the present time. The study also embraces fundamental concepts as to sources of law, juristic methods and substantive principles of law in certain areas.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 304 Seminar on Civil Law 3 3 Credits
This course provides a practical forum for discussing fundamental issues and current issues in the laws on Property, Family and Succession.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 316 Seminar on Criminal Law 2 Credits
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 210 (Criminal Law : General Principles) and LA 211 (Criminal Law: Offences)
This course is a practical forum for discussing issues of particular importance in criminal law with a view to a sharper insight into criminal law.
(Lecture Time: 2 hours a week)

LA 317 Juvenile Justice 3 Credits
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 210 (Criminal Law : General Principles)
This course gives an account of principles of law, important socio-legal issues and psychological aspects in relation to juvenile offenders, administration of justice for juveniles, the Juvenile and Family Court systems as well as procedure in this special court, the correction and rehabilitation of the offender’s mindset and the protection of welfare of juveniles and minors in family disputes under the law establishing the Juvenile and Family Court and Procedure for Juvenile and Family Disputes and other relevant laws.

(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 318 Comparative Criminal Law
- 3 Credits
- Prerequisite: Having taken LA 210 (Criminal Law: General Principles) and LA 211 (Criminal Law: Offences)
- (This course is not available for students outside the Faculty of Law.)
- This course compares and contrasts criminal law in the civil law and common law jurisdictions.
- (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 319 Medical Law and Forensic Medicine
- 3 Credits
- Prerequisite: Having taken LA 211 (Criminal Law: Offences)
- This course provides an account of medical science that relates to the application of law, in particular, evidential proof for criminal and civil proceedings.
- (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 326 Criminal Justice
- 3 Credits
- Prerequisite: Having taken or taking LA 384 (Law of Criminal Procedure)
- This course provides a study of the administration of criminal justice, theories of punishment and correction of offenders in the legal aspect and reform of punishment schemes.
- (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 327 Criminology and Penology
- 3 Credits
- Prerequisite: Having taken LA 210 (Criminal Law: General Principles)
- This course is dedicated to exploring natures and causes of crime, the prevention of crime, sociology of criminal law, theories and research works in this area, schemes for correcting and rehabilitating offenders, the administration of justice, schemes in relation to prisons and correction, social and educational backgrounds of prisoners, and measures used for the deferment of determination of penalty and for the suspension of punishment. Theories and varying practices vis-à-vis offenders are also examined.
- (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 328 Military Law
- 2 Credits
- Prerequisite: Having taken or taking LA 384 (Law of Criminal Procedure)
- This course provides a study of the Military Penal Code, the Charter of the Military Court and martial law.
- (Lecture Time: 2 hours a week)

LA 330 Partnerships and Companies
- 3 Credits
- This course provides a study of principles of law related to partnerships and companies under the Civil and Commercial Code, Book III.
- (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 331 Bills and Notes
- 3 Credits
- This course provides a study of principles of law related to negotiable instruments under the Civil and Commercial Code, Book III.
- (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 332 Law of Insurance
- 3 Credits
- This course provides a study of principles of law related to insurance under the Civil and Commercial Code, Book III.
- (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 335 Intellectual Property
- 3 Credits
- Prerequisite: Being at least a second-year student
- This course provides an account of principles of law on copyright, trademarks, trade names and patents.
- (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 336 Taxation 1
- 3 Credits
- Prerequisite: Having taken LA 230 (Specific Contracts 3) (for law students) or being a at least second-year student (for students outside the Faculty of Law)
- This course accommodates a study of the Revenue Code in so far as it deals with personal income taxes, corporate taxes and tax appeals.
LA 337  Taxation 2
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 230 (Specific Contracts 3) (for law students) or being at least a second-year student (for students outside the Faculty of Law)
This course accommodates a study of the Revenue Code in so far as it deals with trade taxes, stamp duties and gives an account of the excise taxes law and tax-related international agreements.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 338  Accounting for Lawyers
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 330 (Partnerships and Companies)
This course is dedicated to giving an introduction of accounting principles to students with no prior accounting background. Problems in managing book-keeping for business are canvassed. The laws related to accounting and accounting proceedings also fall within the scope of this course.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 339  Law on Securities and Exchange
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 330 (Partnerships and Companies)
This course seeks to examine the funding systems and fund raising schemes of companies through issuance of securities. Embraced by the study are types of securities, issuance of securities, public offering of securities, securities businesses, unfair practices related to securities trading and business domination, measures for promoting, regulating and supervising such practices, and theories related to the protection of investors. The scope of the study is also extended to securities exchanges, securities trading centres outside securities exchanges, futures trading centres, organisations pertinent to securities and other securities businesses, and the supervision of securities and securities exchanges as well as such supervisory bodies.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 346  Comparative Business Law
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 330 (Partnerships and Companies). (This course is not available for students outside the Faculty of Law)
This course provides a comparative study of corporate laws and development of commercial law in common law and civil law jurisdictions. Issues concerning the conflict of laws in this area are also attempted.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 347  Customs Law
Prerequisite: Being at least a third-year student
This course explores the nature and purposes of the customs law, the evolution and backgrounds of the customs law, liability for customs duties, customs formalities, liability and penalties under the customs law, principles related to customs tariffs, interpretation of customs tariffs, powers and duties of customs officials, customs cases, exemption and returns of customs duties, the relationship between the customs law and promotion of investment, industrial estates and other laws as well as customs-related international agreements.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 348  Maritime Law
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 231 (Specific Contracts 2) or LA 209 (Civil and Commercial Law) or BA 201 (Law Related to Business Operation)
This course is dedicated to exploring principles in maritime law e.g. the law on sea liners, the law related to mortgage of vessels and maritime preferential rights, liability and limitation of liability of shipowners, charterparties, carriage of goods by sea, liability for vessel collision, sea salvage, general average and marine insurance.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 349  Law on Financial Institutions
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 230 (Specific Contracts 1) and LA 231 (Specific Contracts 2)
This course explores the meaning and significance of financial institutions, the State’s policies and roles of the Bank of Thailand in exercising control and supervision of financial institutions both in the public and private sectors, the law and regulations applicable to the organisation of financial institutions, roles of financial institutions in relation to deposits, credit extension and other services at domestic and international levels. Problems and recommendations in connection with the control and development of financial institutions and other aspects are also attempted.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course Code</th>
<th>Course Title</th>
<th>Credits</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>LA 350</td>
<td>Administrative Law 1</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course seeks to grasp the historical backgrounds and the general nature of the Administration and Administrative Law, sources of administrative law in varying legal systems, fundamental concepts, application and interpretation of administrative law, the organisation of public administration, the formation and legal status of juridical personality in public law, theories concerning administrative action, rules with regard to administrative procedure, and administrative contracts. (Lecture Time: 2 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 351</td>
<td>Administrative Law 2</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Having taken LA 350 (Administrative Law 1)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course provides a study of concepts underlying, and the need for, mechanisms for scrutinising the Administration. For this purpose, forms designed for policing the Administration in various jurisdictions are to be canvassed. The scope of this subject includes the establishment of the administrative court, administrative procedure, responsibility of the Administration and, also, the administration of personnel and property of administrative bodies. (Lecture Time: 2 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 353</td>
<td>Industrial Law</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course explores the actuality and scopes of legislation applicable as a means to control the operation of industries and pollution generated by the operation of industries. (Lecture Time: 2 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 354</td>
<td>Political Parties and Electoral Law</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Having taken or presently taking LA 250 (Introduction of Public Law)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course endeavours to provide an account of historical backgrounds and current issues surrounding political parties, electoral systems and agencies in charge of elections in Thailand. With regard to political parties, this course places particular emphasis on structures and roles of political parties under legislation currently in force. As far as legislation on elections, this course seeks to explore strengths and shortcomings found in the electoral systems and the electoral agency under current legislation and approaches to revise such legislation. (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 355</td>
<td>Public Law Seminar</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Having taken LA 250 (Introduction of Public Law)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course provide a seminal forum for discussing issues of particular importance in the constitutional law, administrative law and finance law with a view to having greater in-depth understanding in public law. (Lecture Time: 2 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 356</td>
<td>Law of Parliament</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Having taken or presently taking LA 250 (Introduction of Public Law)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course is intended to investigate the evolution and history of the parliamentary institution, the importance of Parliament vis-à-vis the democratic regime of government, forms of parliament in western democratic regimes, principles of independence in the operation of parliament in various jurisdictions, rules of procedure of parliament, the legal nature of rules of procedure of parliament, sitting of parliament, powers and duties of the President of the Houses and Secretary-General of each House in respect of the general administration, parliamentary officials, work systems and the operation of work of standing committees and ad hoc committees of the Houses, agenda for sittings and agenda scheduling within the Houses, and legislative procedures of the Houses. The study is based upon the comparative approach under which positions in Thailand will be compared and contrasted with those in foreign jurisdictions. Parliamentary mechanisms for scrutinising the Executive is a matter of discussion as well. (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 357</td>
<td>Law of Local Administration</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Having taken or presently taking LA 250 (Introduction of Public Law) and LA 350 (Administrative Law 1)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course is intended to examine fundamental concepts in connection with the organisation of local administration and local government organisations under legislation currently in force, powers and duties of these organisations as juridical persons, in particular, the power with regard to the issuance of ordinances, the superintendence of such organisations, both in respect of their officials and action performed by their officials, financial procedures of local government organisations and oversight exercisable by the Central Administration. (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>Course Code</td>
<td>Course Title</td>
<td>Credits</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>-------------</td>
<td>------------------------------------------------------------------------------</td>
<td>---------</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 358</td>
<td>Agrarian Law</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course seeks to discuss general land holding systems, credits for agricultural purposes, agricultural institutions, problems encountered in land holding organisation for agricultural purposes in Thailand, problems faced by agriculturists and solutions to those problems through legal measures under existing legislation including the law controlling leases of land for agricultural purposes, the law on land reform for agricultural purposes, the law on land development for agricultural purposes, and problems of particular interest e.g. those surrounding land sale on redemption, labour protection in the agricultural sector and agricultural zoning. (Lecture Time: 2 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 359</td>
<td>Comparative Study of Administrative Courts and Administrative Court Procedure</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Having taken or presently taking LA 250 (Introduction of Public Law) and LA 351 (Administrative Law 2) This course canvasses the meaning and significance of administrative courts, compare structures of administrative courts under the unitary model and the duality model of courts, tasks, jurisdiction and the organisation of administrative courts of Thailand with the positions elsewhere, in particular, with those in France and Germany. The comparative study is also extended to the administrative court procedure, provisional protection measure, judgments and enforcement of judgments of administrative courts. (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 363</td>
<td>Information Technology Law</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Being at least a 2nd year student This course is dedicated to grasping legal issues emerging from information technology. It also provides an introductory account of information technology as well as the development of the application of information technology to social sciences and law. Students will also be given practices in the use of information technology for academic research and in the compilation, dissemination and management of legal information in varying fields. (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 365</td>
<td>Seminar in Socio-Historical and Philosophical Studies of Law</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Obtaining approval by the Instructor This course requires a presentation of a report and stimulating discussions on issues related to sociology of law, history of law, comparative law or philosophy of law, as instructed by the instructor or as published in advance for the purpose of each semester. (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 366</td>
<td>Application and Interpretation of Law</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Being at least a third-year Law student This course gives a theoretical and historical account, in a comparative dimension, of common law and civil law traditions, principles concerning the application and interpretation of written law, analogy of law, the application of customary law and the application of “general principles of law” under section 4 of the Civil and Commercial Code. In addition, the course also embraces the application and interpretation of specific laws such as the criminal law, public law, contract law, etc. For these purposes, selected practical problems as well as theoretical problems will be explored. (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 367</td>
<td>Introduction to Southeast Asian Legal Systems</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course gives an account of historical backgrounds, the contents and the reception of western laws and legal institutions of particular importance in private law, criminal law and procedural laws in countries in the Southeast Asian region e.g. Myanmar, Laos, Cambodia, Vietnam, the Philippines, Malaysia, Singapore, Brunei and Indonesia. (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 368</td>
<td>Introduction to the Thai Legal System</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Having obtained approval by the Instructor (taught and evaluated in English) This course gives an account of historical backgrounds, the contents and the reception of western laws, juristic methods and legal institutions of particular importance into Thai law and also revisits peculiar features of the existing Thai legal system in public law, private law and other branches of law. (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 369</td>
<td>English Legal Reading and Research</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Having taken LA 265 (English Legal Terminology and Expressions) This course provides a practical forum for studying and practicing reading documents in the legal profession e.g. textbooks, articles and law reports of different jurisdictions. Students will also be given</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
practices in researching laws of foreign jurisdictions.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 381 Law of Civil Procedure
This course provides a study of the law of civil procedure with regard to general provisions, procedure in courts of first instance, appeal to the Court of Appeal and to the Supreme Court (the Dika Court).
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 382 Law of Civil Procedure
This course provides a study of the law of evidence and embraces general principles of the law of evidence and provisions embodied in the Civil Procedure Code and the Criminal Procedure Code.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 383 Law of Civil Procedure: Provisional Measures and Execution of Judgments
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 381 (Law of Civil Procedure)
This course provides a study of the law of civil procedure with respect to pre-judgment provisional measures and the execution of judgments or orders under the Civil Procedure Code).
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 384 Law of Criminal Procedure
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 381 (Law of Civil Procedure) or having obtained approval from the Instructor
This course provides an account of criminal procedure under the Criminal Procedure Code).
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 385 Basic Skills in Legal Practice 1
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 381 (Law of Civil Procedure) (This course is open only for at least third-year law students and not open for students outside the Faculty of Law)
This course offers a practical forum for studying useful principles in relation to general legal consultancy and the organisation of a law firm. Legal pupilage is also provided with respect to the consultancy, the investigation and examination of facts, the preparation of preliminary legal opinions, etc. This course requires lectures at the frequency of an hour a week and real legal practice for a total duration of not less than 64 hours.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 386 Basic Skills in Legal Practice 2
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 385 (Basic Skills in Legal Practice 1) (This course is open only for third-year law students upwards and not open for students outside the Faculty of Law)
This course focuses on principles in relation to legal consultancy in specific areas e.g. trade, finance, taxes, labour, etc. This course requires lectures at the frequency of an hour a week and real legal practice for a total duration of not less than 64 hours.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 387 Seminar on Problems in Criminal Justice
Prerequisite: Having taken or taking LA 384 (Law of Criminal Procedure)
This course examines current legal issues in connection with State policies in criminal matters, criminal proceedings and others related to the administration of criminal justice.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 390 Public International Law
This course provides a study of the history of international law, principles in international law, sources of international law e.g. treaties, international customary law, general principles of international law, acts with binding force in international law, the relationship between international law and municipal law, personality in international law e.g. the State, classification of States, rights and obligations of the State, principles concerning jurisdiction, international organisations and other forms of juridical persons in international law, and the status of individuals under international law.
In addition, this course also seeks to give an account of consequences of the recognition of the State and the recognition of the government, succession of rights of the State, responsibility of the State, diplomatic and consular relations, international law applicable to varying areas e.g. international seas, river, canals and air space, legal relations in international economics, international law with respect to human rights, international law in connection with the environment, settlement of international disputes, wars and armed conflicts in international relations.
(Lecture Time: 4 hours a week)
LA 396  Human Rights
(Constitutional Law)
This course is aimed at exploring the history, evolution, theories, conceptions and philosophical thinking in connection with fundamental rights and providing an account of principles and rules of legal nature as well as those which are of moral nature. Means for the promotion and protection of human rights are also discussed.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 397  Law of International Organisations
This course provides a study of the meaning and formation of international organisations, legal personality of international organisations, acquisition and termination of membership of an international organisation, legal consequences of resolutions of international organisations, privileges and immunities of international organisations, legal issues surrounding the United Nations and international organisations and specialised agencies of the United Nations, and selected legal issues of regional international organisations.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 398  Criminal International Law
This course explores theories underlying the application of criminal law with respect to criminal international law, general principles internationally adopted, extradition, principles related to extradition under the Extradition Act. B.E. 2472 (1929) and under extradition treaties made by Thailand with other countries, offences under international law falling within responsibility for the purpose of the prevention and suppression of the International Criminal Police Organisation (ICPO) e.g. slave trade, woman trade, piracy, hijacking, etc., international co-operation in crime suppression under the Treaty on the Co-operation for the Execution of Penal Sentences.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 399  Law of the Sea
This course is intended to provide a study of historical backgrounds of the law of the sea, sources of the law of the sea, the legal status of waters falling within jurisdiction of the State e.g. internal waters, territorial seas and contiguous zones, exclusive economic zones, continental shelves, archipelagic waters, straits, bays as well as the legal status of waters not falling within jurisdiction of the State e.g. high seas and deep sea-beds, technical legal principles applicable to the delineation of the territorial area of the sea and the settlement of international disputes in the law of the sea.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 407  Comparative Civil Law
This course compares and contrasts private law of Thailand with private law of other civil law jurisdictions as well as backgrounds, philosophical foundations and juristic methods in private law.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 436  International Business Transactions
This course attempts to provide an account of legislation applicable to the operation of international trade and foreign investment by business operators and also offers a forum for discussions on related legal issues.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 437  Law of Investment
This course explores rights and duties of investors in Thailand and also policies in relation to regulation providing incentives for investors. It also seeks to discuss legislation related to the operation of foreign businesses as well as laws related to investment of other countries, in particular, developing countries.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 438  Settlement of Commercial Disputes and Arbitration
This course is intended to give an account of the nature of commercial disputes in varying areas. For this purpose, students are introduced forms, reasons and methods in relation to settlement of commercial disputes, in particular, the settlement of disputes through arbitration. The scope of this course is also extended to legal principles, rules and regulations, arbitration institutions and international agreements of particular importance in relation to arbitration, considerations in concluding contracts, choice of law and means of dispute settlement, rules and problems encountered in litigation, recognition and enforcement of arbitral awards and foreign judgments.

(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 439  Law concerning Finance in International Business Transactions  3 Credits
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 230 (Specific Contracts 1), LA 231 (Specific Contract 2) and LA 331 (Bills and Notes)
This course is devoted to studying the meaning and importance of finance, financial markets and financial contracts in international business transactions, roles of financial institutions and financial markets at both domestic and international levels, financial services, legal principles, regulations and practices in relation to the conclusion of international financial agreements, e.g. loan agreements and guarantees, standby credits, letters of credit and performance bonds issued as security for performance of international debts, principles of contract law and the use of letters of credit, bills of exchange and promissory notes as a means of international payment, trust receipts, currency exchange control and roles of the State in financial control, and international financial markets as well as international finance agreements.

(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 446  Maritime Law Seminar  3 Credits
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 348 (Maritime Law)
This course provides a study of legal principles and practices in maritime law, including conceptual analyses and solutions to problems encountered. The scope also embraces practices in the carriage of goods by sea, principles related to charterparties, marine insurance, legal issues related to litigation, legal proceedings, competence of courts, concepts underlying practical problems and solutions to those problems.

(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 447  Problem in Business Law  3 Credits
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 330 (Partnerships and Companies) and LA 331 (Bills and Notes)
This course seeks to explore issues of importance in business law in the light of changes or the development in domestic and international economic systems, with particular emphasis on the analysis of problems and possible solutions to problems encountered e.g. issues related to joint ventures, franchising, leasing, licensing and technological transfer agreements.

(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 448  Intellectual Property Seminar  2 Credits
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 335 (Intellectual Property)
This course takes the form of seminars. For this purpose, topics of seminars vary as appropriate, with particular emphasis on one or more selected areas of law e.g. the trade secret protection, plant varieties protection, geographical indications protection and the protection of topographies of integrated circuits. International agreements related to intellectual property will also be discussed.

(Lecture Time: 2 hours a week)

LA 450  Labour Law  3 Credits
This course provides a study of principles of labour law and the historical backgrounds of labour law of Thailand, contracts of employment, the law on labour relations, the law on labour protection and other related laws.

(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 451  Law of Public Finance and Taxation 1  3 Credits
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 451 (Law of Public Finance and Taxation 1)
This course gives an account of finance law in relation to finance, fiscal affairs, budgetary procedures, taxation and institutions involved in financial and fiscal affairs. In addition, economic theories related to financial and fiscal affairs in the light of public administration will also be grasped.

(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 452  Law of Public Finance and Taxation 2  3 Credits
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 451 (Law of Public Finance and Taxation 1)
This course provides a study of fundamental concepts in, and the evolution of, public finance and taxation law. The correlation of this course with other subjects will be canvassed in the light of public law and private law, including the correlation with other disciplines.

(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course Code</th>
<th>Course Title</th>
<th>Credits</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>LA 453</td>
<td>Land Use Control</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course is aimed at exploring necessity of land use and the meaning of land use in urban and rural areas and legitimacy of the exercise of this power by the State under the Constitutional Law. Related legislation to be dealt with by this course includes the law on building control and the law on town and country planning, with particular emphasis on procedures for, and the scope of, town and country planning as well as compensation to aggrieved individuals. (Lecture Time: 2 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 454</td>
<td>Comparative Administrative Law</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Having taken or taking LA 250 (Introduction to Public Law) and LA 350 (Administrative Law 1)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course aims to pursue a comparative study of administrative law, comparing and contrasting issues of particular importance in the administrative law of Thailand and those of other jurisdictions. (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 455</td>
<td>Law of Conservation of Natural Resources and the Environment</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Having taken or taking LA 250 (Introduction to Public Law)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course is intended to give an account of legal concepts in relation to the conservation of natural resources and the environment, methods deployed in controlling pollution in, for example, land, water or air. Related legislation will be grasped. (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 456</td>
<td>Law of Social Security</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Having taken or taking LA 250 (Introduction to Public Law) and LA 450 (Labour Law)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course provides a study of fundamental concepts and historical backgrounds of social security law, schemes for insuring against illness, infirmity, agedness, death and unemployment. Problems, obstacles and the development of social security schemes in Thailand will be examined. (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 457</td>
<td>Labour Law 2</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Having taken LA 450 (Labour Law 1)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course provides an further study of power and duties of associations formed by employers and employees, legal consequences of a demand of a negotiation over conditions of employment, the legal status of employment agreements, powers and duties of the Executive and the Judiciary in relation to the mediation and settlement of labour disputes, labour procedure as compared with civil procedure, and provisional measures as well as reliefs for the prevention of loss to parties to labour disputes. (Lecture Time: 2 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 458</td>
<td>Problems in Labour Law</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Having taken LA 450 (Labour Law 1)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course examines problems of important in labour law with a view to a greater insight and greater ability in analysing those problems thoroughly and properly on the basis of academic footing, which will in turn lead to further viewpoints and approaches to appropriate revision of law and enforcement of law in the interest of greater justice and benefits to employers, employees and society. Examples of problems to be examined include problems with regard to the protection of female labour and child labour, problems with regard to labour relations in State enterprise, problems with regard to roles and co-ordination of State agencies in respect of the mediation and settlement of labour disputes, or other problems as the instructor deems appropriate for discussion. (Lecture Time: 2 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 459</td>
<td>Labour Courts and Labour Procedural Law</td>
<td>2</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Having taken LA 450 (Labour Law 1)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course gives an account of powers and duties of labour courts and labour procedure in labour courts. (Lecture Time: 2 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 460</td>
<td>Philosophy of Law 1</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course aims to examine the evolution of legal philosophical thinking from the ancient time to the present time. Problems in relation to foundations of law will also be dealt with. (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
LA 461  Legal Profession
This course is a practical forum for grasping the evolution of the legal profession, functions and works of lawyers in different areas, ethics, disciplines and ideologies of lawyers, and also organisations for overseeing the operation of the legal profession.
(Lecture Time: 2 hours a week)

LA 462  Thai History of Law
This course intends to explore the history of Thai cultures and society as the foundation of important legal institutions of Thailand. The study also covers influences of thinking, legal principles and legal systems of India and western countries on the evolution of Thai law. In addition, this course provides an account of the evolution of Thai law from the ancient times to the present time, in particular, from the period of codification of law upwards, based upon the comparative law approach with a view to due comprehension of the legal system of Thailand.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 466  Philosophy of Law 2
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 460 (Philosophy of Law 1)
This course offers a forum for examining selected fundamental issues in legal theories and specific issues of current interest in philosophy of law. For the seminal purposes, a list of issues will be published in each semester.
(Lecture Time: 2 hours a week)

LA 480  Law of Bankruptcy and Business Reorganisation
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 330 (Partnerships and Companies) and LA 381 (Law of Civil Procedure)
This course aims to provide a study of bankruptcy and business reorganisation as the means for debt enforcement, distribution of debt payment at time of insolvency as differentiated from debt enforcement measures in civil cases in general. The study includes, firstly, the evolution, justifications and necessity of principles of bankruptcy and business reorganisation as well as the correlation of such measures with overall economy. Then, the study will extend to steps, processes and procedures pertinent to bankruptcy and business reorganisation, and also to rights, duties and roles of interested parties as well as roles played by the State in those proceedings.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 485  Criminal Investigation
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 384 (Law of Criminal Procedure)
This course takes students through the administration of criminal justice at stages involving the police. This embraces the conduct of investigations and inquiries with regard to the commission of criminal offences. Constitutional rights of the alleged offenders will also be grasped.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 486  Problems in the Law of Civil Procedure
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 381 (Law of Civil Procedure) and LA 383 (Law of Civil Procedure: Provisional Measures and Execution of Judgments)
This course seeks to discuss issues of particular importance in civil procedure with a view to gaining greater insights into the law of civil procedure.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 487  Problems in the Law of Criminal Procedure
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 384 (Law of Criminal Procedure)
This course seeks to discuss issues of particular importance in criminal procedure with a view to gaining greater insights into the law of criminal procedure.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 488  Legal Consultancy and Advocacy
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 381 (Law of Civil Procedure) and having taken or taking LA 384 (Law of Criminal Procedure)
(This course is not open for students outside the Faculty of Law.)
This course provides an account of important rules applicable to the setting up of a law office and the administration of a law office as well as techniques in legal consultancy. The study also extends to legal advocacy, preparation of briefs and, in addition, provides practices in drafting plaints and motions, the taking of evidence. For this purpose, the practice will be based upon the moot court model, with a view to building expertise in advocacy in courts of law.
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)
<table>
<thead>
<tr>
<th>Course Code</th>
<th>Course Title</th>
<th>Credits</th>
</tr>
</thead>
<tbody>
<tr>
<td>LA 489</td>
<td>Seminar in Law of Evidence</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Having taken LA 382 (Law of Evidence)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course accommodates both theoretical and practical issues of importance in the law of evidence. For this purpose, comparative analyses are to be conducted of important decisions of the Supreme Court and certain evidentiary principles embodied in the Civil Procedure Code, the Criminal Procedure Code and other relevant laws, in order to provide students with better understanding of those legal principles as well as their application.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 491</td>
<td>Private International Law</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course is intended to deal with principles in the private international law with regard to persons or private individuals having international elements in all forms. The scope of the study embraces the classification of private individuals in an international dimension by reference to nationality and domicile, the determination of rights, duties and legal personality of persons in an international dimension, and conflict of laws rules as well as methods for the settlement of disputes of persons in an international dimension. The law on nationality, the law on conflict of laws, the law on non-nationals and relevant treaties are to be dealt with by this course.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 492</td>
<td>International Law of Diplomatic and Consular Relations</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course offers stimulating opportunities of studying legal principles related to diplomatic and consular relations along the line of the Vienna Convention on Consular Relations 1963, the Convention on Special Missions 1969 and current practices of the State in these matters.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 493</td>
<td>European Union Law</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Having taken LA 390 (Public International Law)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course seeks to take students through the history and evolution of the European Union (EU), objectives and sources of EU law, the structural characteristics of the European Union, legal systems of the European Union, the structure, powers, duties and operations of the European Union, namely, the European Commission, the European Council and the European Court of Justice. The study also embraces economic law of the European Union e.g. the single market law, the relations between the European Union and Member States and between the European Union and other States or other international organisations.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 494</td>
<td>Problems in International Law</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Having taken LA 390 (Public International Law)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course examines problematic issues in international law in the light of the application of the law to current situations on a case-by-case basis.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 495</td>
<td>Law of the Association of South East Asian Nations</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Having taken LA 390 (Public International Law)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course canvases historical backgrounds and the legal status of ASEAN, the structure of powers and duties of ASEAN as well as its operations and problems encountered by it, laws and legal issues related to activities of ASEAN, both in relation to international co-operation amongst Member Countries and in relation to the co-operation between ASEAN and a State or between ASEAN and other international organisations.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 496</td>
<td>Aviation and Aerospace Law</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Having taken LA 390 (Public International Law)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course provides a study of both domestic and international aviation law and roles of international organisations in aviation control. It also seeks to discuss issues in international law in relation to sovereign rights over land and territorial jurisdiction of the State, such as undue forfeiture of aircraft and the commission of offences on board the aircraft. Also embraced by this course is a study of principles of aerospace law and rules applicable to the control of activities of the State in aerospace.</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td>LA 497</td>
<td>Law of the Maintenance of Peace and International Security</td>
<td>3</td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>Prerequisite: Having taken LA 390 (Public International Law)</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
<tr>
<td></td>
<td>This course gives an account of the legal systems and the operations of the League of Nations and the United Nations in respect of the maintenance of peace and international security. Also, legal issues</td>
<td></td>
</tr>
</tbody>
</table>
surrounding important events or crises in international relations from the past up to present will be grasped. (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 498 Introduction to International Economic Law 3 Credits
This course is aimed at exploring roles and the significance of the law vis-à-vis international economy, in the light of international trade, international finance, and foreign direct investment. The study also covers economic roles played by important international organisations such as the World Trade Organisation (WTO), the United Nations Conference on Trade and Development (UNCTAD), the International Bank of Reconstruction and Development (IBRD) and the International Monetary Fund (IMF). (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 499 International Law of Development 3 Credits
Prerequisite: Having taken LA 390 (Public International Law)
This course grasps the meaning of, and concepts related to, “development”, the correlation between international law and development, the meaning and sources of international law, with a view to seeing refinement of principles and regulations applicable to international economic, trade and investment relations, roles of the State, international organisations e.g. the United Nations and varying agencies with the United Nations, regional international organisations and other agitators such as multinational corporations. (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

Subjects for Non-Law Students

LA 209 Civil and Commercial Law 3 Credits
This course gives an account of general principles in the Civil and Commercial Code in the following Titles:
(1) Persons
(2) Property (types of property and proprietary rights)
(3) Juristic acts (general principles, declaration of will, void and voidable acts)
(4) Obligations and contracts
(Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 239 Business Law 3 Credits
Prerequisite: Having passed LA 209 (Civil and Commercial Law)
This course provides a study of legal principles related to the incorporation, powers and duties, operation and termination of partnerships and companies. The course also gives an account of principles related to selected specific contracts of particular importance as well as recently promulgated legislation related to certain prominent businesses. (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 246 Introduction to Intellectual Property 3 Credits
Prerequisite: Being at least second-year non-law student
This course seeks to provide students with fundamental knowledge in relation to the protection of “creation of the mind of human-beings”, justifications and needs for the protection and benefits to be derived from the protection of this kind of property, the enforcement of rights flowing from the protection. For this purpose, examples will be drawn from existing intellectual property law, in particular, such legislation most central to the daily life of students e.g. the copyright law and the trademark law. (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)

LA 269 Introduction to Legal Studies 3 Credits
This course explores the emergence, evolution and features of law, the relationship between law, morality, tradition and culture, sources of law, types of the hierarchy of law, the classification of law, types of written law, legal concepts necessary to be aware of, such as rights, duties, privileges, immunities, the exercise of rights, world’s main legal systems, etc. The study also covers the application and interpretation of law as well as certain matters in civil law. (Lecture Time: 3 hours a week)